Job Title: Lecturer in Motor Vehicle (3 posts)

Post ref: 2721

Salary: c£23.3k- £35.3k per annum

Contract: 37 hours per week and permanent

Location: All Nottingham College campuses

Nottingham College is going through some exciting changes as it emerges as one of the biggest colleges in the country. This role is a new and unique opportunity to shape services for our students, to give them the best possible experience whilst at the College.

An exciting opportunity has arisen for lecturers to join the Nottingham College Motor Vehicle curriculum delivery team. We are looking for a highly motivated individual to help us develop and grow this area of our curriculum, whilst ensuring that our learners experience outstanding learning. This role will be responsible for delivering high quality training to learners from level 1 through to level 3. We offer courses in Motor Vehicle and Motorcycle and are constantly looking at developing new routes, so a wide range of skills would be an advantage.

You will have extensive industry experience and be able to work efficiently and flexibly as part of a small team, to ensure growth and success in both our full time provision and apprenticeship programmes. Our aim as an ambitious team is to ensure our learners not only gain high level skills to enable them to achieve in the world of work, but also to develop and grow our offer whilst meeting challenging academy targets.

For further details on this post which the job profile and person specification cannot answer for you, please contact Wendy Walker-Graham, Faculty Area Manager on 0115 884 2569.

The closing date is 18th October 2017.

Interviews/assessments dates are to be confirmed.

In this area we are currently under-represented in terms of female staff, those from ethnic minority backgrounds and those with disabilities. In order to work towards matching our staff profile to that of our diverse student community, applications are particularly welcomed from such applicants. All applications will be treated on merit.

If you are interested please have a look at our College website for further details and to apply online at www.ncn.ac.uk

New College Nottingham is positive about the employment of people with a disability and is committed to developing a diverse workforce and inclusive environment with equal opportunities for all.
